PREPARING YOUR ORAL PRESENTATION

Guide for English III Oral Presentations Addressing a Familiar or Local Issue

By Jimena Rivadeneira, MA. TEFL.

PRESENTATION STRUCTURE

INTRODUCTION

PROBLEM EXPLANATION

PROPOSED SOLUTIONS

CLOSING

USEFUL PHRASES FOR THE OPENING: WELCOME & TOPIC PRESENTATION

Good afternoon dear teacher and partners.

First of all, let me thank you for being here today.

Let me introduce myself, I'm ……. I study……. at ESPOL University in the Faculty of …….

As you can see on the screen, the topic for today's presentation is ……..

USEFUL PHRASES FOR THE INTRODUCTION

HOOK

To begin, I would like to:

1) ask you…

2) tell you a story…

3)quote Virginia Woolf…

4)present statistics on …..

5) share news about …

6) tell a joke ….

SIGNIFICANCE

My topic is particularly relevant because…..

PURPOSE

The reason why I've addressed the issue of …… is because I want to present…..

USEFUL PHRASES FOR THE PROBLEM EXPLANATION

IDENTIFY THE PROBLEM

Now, I'd like to share with you some background important information …. In 2007, ….. The problem arose when…. It has had a huge negative impact on……

CONSEQUENCES

I also want to present the consequences of this issue:

The first one is …..

And the second one is …..

USEFUL PHRASES FOR THE PROPOSED SOLUTIONS

Well, it is time to share 2 solutions I've come up with.

SOLUTION # 1

The first solution is .....

The benefits are:.....

SOLUTION # 2

The second solution has to do with .....

And the advantages are: ....

USEFUL PHRASES FOR THE CLOSING

RECAP

To recap, I've covered the following points so far:

First, I presented the problem…. Second, I explained the solution # 1…. And finally, I shared the solution # 2 …

CALL TO ACTION

Now, I'd like to motivate you to be part of the solutions I've proposed.

For example, you can …..

CLOSING

Finally, I'd like to thank you for listening to me today and I hope my presentation has given you a better understanding of (PROBLEM) and how to solve it (SOLUTIONS).

REMEMBER THINGS THAT MATTER

- ✓A good pronunciation (Google the pronunciation of new words)
- ✓Good grammar and vocabulary (according to the topic)
- ✓Good content (say something interesting)
- ✓Good body language (relaxed, confident, proper voice volumen and pitch, eye contact with the audience)
- ✓Practice, practice, practice ☺

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

1 PRONUNCIATION

How you say a word.

2 FLUENCY

How smoothly you speak

3 GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY

- Grammar refers to how well you use tenses, prepositions, verbs, etc.
- Vocabulary refers to how much vocabulary you know.

4 DELIVERY

- Body language
- Attire
- Visual aids
- Time limit

5 STRUCTURE

- Introduction
- Problem explanation
- Proposed solutions
- Closing

6 CONTENT

Content demonstrates that the student researched the topic for the presentation.

Made with Gamma