

50 Phrasal Verbs List

1. Back down	To stop doing something or admit you were wrong because people oppose you Party leaders backed down after latest protests.
2. Blow up	To explode That car crashed into the building and blew up!
3. Break down	To suddenly stop functioning (used for machinery) They were on our way to the school when our car broke down.
4. Bring up	To mention something She's still very sad about her sister's death, so don't bring it up.
5. Bump into	To see or meet someone unexpectedly We bumped into Mary when we were in city last week.
6. Call off	To cancel Because of their wedding, we had to call off our holiday.
7. Check on	To make sure someone is okay or safe The doctor had come to check on his patient
8. Check out	To pay your bill and leave (usually a hotel) Have you packed yet? We have to check out by 12 pm..
9. Check with	To ask someone if something is okay or permitted I'm pretty sure I can come to party next week. I just have to check with my parents.
10. Come across	To find something unexpectedly When I was clearing my phone, I came across to our old messages.
11. Come back	To return I had a great time here. I'll come back soon!
12. Come in	To enter You don't need to wait— just come in!
13. Come up with	To think of a plan or an idea She keeps coming up with all kinds of lame excuses.
14. Cut down	Reduce the size, amount, or quantity of something. I should cut down my salt intake.
15. Drop by	To go somewhere (usually someone's home) for a casual visit I'll be in my office all day. You can drop by for coffee whenever you want.
16. Drop off	To take something or someone to a specific place You forgot your wallet in my room. I'll drop it off at your office later.
17. End up	finally be or do something She ended up marrying his high school boyfriend.
18. Fall apart	To break into pieces I fell apart after her death.
19. Fall down	To collapse and fall to the ground He fell down at school today.
20. Find out	To discover He find out a new way to travel between cities.
21. Get along	To have a good, friendly relationship with someone We are good friends and always got along with each other.
22. Get away	To escape The police almost caught him, but he got away.
23. Get by	To be able to live through a difficult situation They don't have a lot of money, but they'll get by.
24. Get over	To recover from a negative experience or an illness I know your wife mad at you now, but she'll get over it.
25. Get up	To stand Can you please get up? I think you're sitting on wallet.

26. Give away	To give something to others for free I think I'm going to give them away. I don't need these shoes anymore.
27. Give in	To finally agree to someone's requests after refusing for a while Our kids have been asking us for a new computer. We finally gave in and got them one.
28. Give up	To stop doing something permanently Her health is getting worse. She need to give up smoking.
29. Go ahead	To start or continue a planned activity It seems this project will go ahead without you.
30. Go out	To leave home and go somewhere I just want to go out and have a party!
31. Grow up	To develop into adulthood When I grow up, I want to be a musician.
32. Hang on	To wait for a short period of time Can you hang on for a minute?
33. Hang out	To spend time relaxing or socializing casually Let's hang out together sometime soon.
34. Kick out	To forcefully tell someone to leave a place You kick me out from this house.
35. Let in	To allow someone to enter a place Let me in please! It's too cold out here!
36. Look after	To take care of something or someone Can you look after my boys while I'm away?
37. Look for	To try to find something I have been looking for you everywhere.
38. Look up	To search for information (usually in a book or online) I didn't know what 'meme' meant and had to look it up in a dictionary.
39. Make up	To become friendly with someone again or forgive them after a disagreement or fight John still hasn't made up with Maryam.
40. Pay back	To take revenge It is pay back time for all your crimes.
41. Pick up	To go somewhere and collect something or someone Let's go to the picnic in one car – I'll pick you up at 6 o'clock.
42. Put off	To delay doing something I know I should clean my room, but I've been putting it off for weeks.
43. Put on	To begin wearing something If she wants to play outside in the rain, make sure to put on a coat.
44. Put up with	To tolerate something The neighbor's dog barks all night long, but I put up with it because they are nice people.
45. Run out	To have no more of something We ran out of coffee.
46. Take off	To leave somewhere suddenly Sh didn't even say goodbye. She just took off!
47. Turn on	To cause something to start working; to activate It's getting dark here; let's turn on the lights.
48. Turn up	To increase the volume, heat, or lights This is her favorite song! Turn it up!
49. Wait up	To stay awake because you are waiting for something or someone She'll be home late today. You don't have to wait up for her.
50. Watch out	To be careful of danger (usually said as a warning) Watch out! There's a hole on the ground!